

EYFS Knowledge Organiser

Religious Education – Celebrations – Term 2.1

“How do different countries celebrate the New Year?”

Happy New Year

Chinese New Year

Nowruz – Persian New Year

Holi – Hindu Festival of Colour

Tradition

a long-established custom or belief that has been passed on from one generation to another

Celebration

a special social event, such as a party, when you celebrate something

- Know that different families have different celebrations
- Understand the meaning of the word 'celebration'
- Be able to listen to stories

- Shows interest in the lives of people who are familiar to them
- Remembers and talks about significant events in their own experience
- Recognises and describes special times or events for family or friends
- Enjoys joining in with family customs and routines
- Children talk about past and present events in their own lives and in the lives of family members They know that other children don't always enjoy the same things, and are sensitive to this They know about similarities and differences between themselves and others, and among families, communities and traditions
- Children can talk about things that are happening and have happened in my life. I know that not everyone does the same as me and that's OK. I know that some things are the same in people's families and some things are different

Significant events

New Year around the world

People around the world celebrate New Year in different ways. We will focus on how we celebrate New Year and then look at Chinese New Year, Persian New Year and the Holi festival of colour.

Key Questions:

How do you celebrate New Year?

Do your friends have different New Year traditions?